Why FUJITSU Hardware-as-a-Service?

Changing markets, shorter product lifecycles, and digital transformation are just a few reasons companies need to react and operate quickly. Increased liquidity is important to gain the competitive edge. With our Fujitsu Hardware-as-a-Service offering, we liberate business and IT leaders from the significant challenges of tight budgets, ageing equipment, and higher cost for ad-hoc repairs. FUJITSU Hardware-as-a-Service unlocks cash for other, more strategic objectives.

- Keep your IT budgets under control
Acquire all the hardware, software, and services you need now and in the future without any upfront and costly capital investment.
- Add hardware at any time
Scale your IT to suit changing requirements simply by changing your monthly subscription.
- Experience hi-tech not high-cost
Give your users the fast and flexible IT they need for less.
- Right-size your technology for extra efficiency
Avoid devices lying around unused or employees waiting for desktops to boot up with best-in-class devices that will boost your productivity.
- Free up your cashflow
Convert large capital expenditure into a manageable operating expense with a fixed monthly subscription.
- Receive regular upgrades
Stay on top of the latest tech trends and keep support visits to a minimum with hardware renewal every three years. At the end of the period, depending on your individual agreement, you simply return the equipment and take delivery of a new one. The equipment will be data wiped to industry standards and remarketed, recycled or disposed of to WEEE directive standards.
